

Hi there
user1

Hi! How are you?
user2

Good! how are you today?
user1

I'm good! Regarding the discussion, I definitely think Republicans are more hypocritical than Democrats.
user2

I'm probably being biased but I think given recent events in Texas Republicans are more hypocritical...
user1

For sure
user2

Some examples the shooting at the elementary school Republicans argue we need " a good guy with a gun"
user1

Think about their stance on gun rights versus their stance on abortion.
user2

right that's a good example
user1

Everyone is entitled to an AR-15 but women aren't entitled to choose about their own bodies
user2

or the fact that theres also no child support for the families once a child is born
user1

They care about unborn babies but not children who want to be safe at school
user2

there's news reports now that there were plenty of officers that had guns, and refused to go into the school to get the shooter
user1

Oh, then the argument about guns saving kids in schools is wrong
user2

right and they continue this argument..
user1

It's all about money in the end
user2

yup yup
user1

I think they are also hypocritical about giving tax breaks
user1

As long as they are being funded they will continue to support full gun rights
user2

They are hypocritical about pretty much everything if it suits the narrative
user2

yes anyting to stay in power. it's really bad...
user1

yes. tax breaks are only for companies and the wealthy
user1

they will lose their minds if an average American gets even a small return
user1

And health care is only for those who can afford it
user2

right. i have no idea what they are talking about when they say "healthcare should be a choice"
HAHA
user1

Whereas the people who really need help are ignored
user2

yes
user1

healthcare already isn't a choice. most people can only afford what their employer offers
user1

or straight up not afford anything at all
user1

The thing that worries me is they will say that Trump doesn't represent the Republican party but they will fight to get him elected again
user2

yes bc his supports allow them to win
user1

and be in power
user1

It's terrifying to think that he could be President again
user2

Because he's the biggest hypocrite of them all
user2

I like how they also say they want to keep jobs for Americans. but don't do anything about companies that literally offshore thousands of jobs
user1

oh yeah he's such a great liar. and they'll make up excuse after excuse for him
user1

Yes, because those companies are giving them huge amounts of money in political donations
user2

"he doesn't pay taxes bc he's a great businessman" ðŸ™ „
user1

At the end of the day it all comes down to money
user2

yeah its quite disgusting we have let companies run America not the ppl
user1
